Dear Gavin,

Just couldn't leave without writing to you to say how very much we all enjoyed being with you in South Africa. You are the quintessential partner to have in learning about your country and the animals at the game preserves.

This was truly the best trip our family has ever taken but I know that is because you planned it so well and took such good care of us in every way.

Bob is recuperating and didn't get the high fever and headaches in London which I feared he might. We are off to Dallas today.

It was so nice meeting your wife Sue - she is so pretty and I only wish we could have had more time with her!

* Hope to see you soon.

Fondly,

(NANCY DEDMAN)

A Club

A club is a haven of refuge and accord in a world torn by strife and discord.

A club is a place where kindred spirits gather to have fun and make friends.

A club is a place of courtesy,
good breeding and good manners.

A club is a place expressly for camaraderie, merriment, good will and good cheer.
It humbles the mighty, draws out the timid and casts out the sorehead.

And a club is one of the noblest inventions of mankind.
